

Senior Equity Trader

Role and Responsibilities:

- Taking instruction directly from clients, placing orders, executing trades.
- Advising clients on market developments and movements, new financial updates by gathering info and exploring economic data analysis, technical analysis, identifying under/overvalued stock process to lead us informing them of the most relevant trades for the day.
- Adhering to all policies and regulations required by the co. and regulatory parties.
- Supervising support staff, juniors, coordinating with other departments to conclude to serving clients in an efficient timely manner.
- Act as an account executive by being responsible for all account activities and processes, including adhering to work regulations and polices delivering correct orders, submitting needed documents to open an account or those needed in later transactions confirmation through periodically authentications made by clients.
- Develop management plan to meet our business objectives through marketing, business presentations, trying to increase our productivity and acquire new clients.

Qualifications:

- Good mathematical skills for handling money and keeping accounts.
- Ability to understand and keep up to date with trading law and regulations.
- Knowing code of ethics and conduct.
- Communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to relate to all kinds of people.
- A friendly and pleasant personality, self-committed, dedicated knowing basics of financial Analysis.

Type of vacancy: Full Time Job

Number of vacancies available: 1

Working Conditions:

Day(s) off: Friday & Saturday

Working Hours: 9am to 5 pm

Monthly Salary:

Negotiable

Location:

Smart Village