

Khaled Rabie

Chairman of NAEEM Brokerage Egypt

Khaled joined Nile Investment in 1997 as part of the brokerage operations team. He has then moved up the career ladder, heading market operations then becoming Managing Director in 2003. Khaled's experience has been essential to the enhancement of the brokerage operations, leading the company to top ten brokerage firms ranking in Egypt. After NAEEM Holding's acquisition of Nile Investment, he became board member of NAEEM Brokerage and Arabia online. Shortly after he moved to Saudi Arabia as a Regional Director capitalizing on his successful career on the retail side and working with high net worth clients. On his new role, Khaled focused on business development and strategic relationship management. He has been influential to the development and integration of the brokerage operations of the region. With over 18 years of solid experience in the equity markets, he moved back to Egypt in Q3 2015 as Chairman for NAEEM Brokerage.
