Fund Manager's Report:

The Central Bank of Egypt (CBE), on behalf of the Ministry of Finance, is set to issue LE 17 billion in treasury bills on Sunday, May 26. The T-bills will be offered in two installments; the first installment is valued at LE 8.5 billion with a 91-day term and the second is worth LE 8.5 billion with a 273-day term.

Egypt is considering offers from a Blackstone Group unit and Edra Power Holdings of Malaysia to take over three power plants co-built by Siemens, a move that could cut the North African nation's debts while bringing in much-needed foreign investment.
